

Image not found or type unknown

Off-the-grid house

Category Country Houses
Interior Designs

Square 65 m²

Year 2013

Client Pavel Bobkov

Authors

Alexander Poroshkin
Ekaterina Zrazhevskaya
Ilya Korenev

The task was to design a house to be quickly installed on any site, and initially ready for comfortable year-round living.

An off-the-grid house is a solution based on two containers that can be transferred on two trucks to any place. Preliminary land development of the installation site for the house is minimal, since the built-in power unit equipped with all engineering systems allows living without external energy sources.

