

Single-family house

Category	Country Houses	Authors
Location	Moscow region	Alexander Poroshkin
Square	350 m ²	Veronika Gerasimova
Year	2013	Ekaterina Zrazhevskaya
Status	Built

A one-storey house for full-time residence of one family. The structural elements of the building proposed by the architects uses maximal integration of the house's space into the environment: spacious terraces, large glass surfaces, convenient functional zoning considering the needs and habits of each family member.

The house has an expedient «wide» layout and a combined facade. This allows the house to stand out among the standard buildings and makes it functional, stylish and convenient for the owners and their guests.